

OUR PATTERN DEPARTMENT

No. 5141—Girls' Frock.

A charming little frock that will be a good model to follow in making up children's wash dresses or the dainty light colored woolen ones to be worn over a gimpie in here shown. This style is one of the easiest to make. The waist is gathered in front and back and attached to a full gathered skirt. The low neck is finished by a bertha that falls over the short puffed sleeves giving the fashionable long shoulder line. As illustrated, it was made of light blue silk, trimmed with bands of insertion. Several materials are adapted to the making, such as chailles, cashmere, pique, silk and lawn. The medium size requires four yards of thirty-six-inch material.

Girls' Frocks, No. 5141, sizes for 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 years.

of the piazza by Miss Marie Berkhoe and Miss Irma Mayer.

Two hundred guests called during the hours of 2 and 3 to meet the distinguished visitor. It was, however, a musical gathering, many of the leading musicians of the city being present.

Miss Elizabeth Cogswell entertains at a large luncheon today at the Country Club.

Mrs. Ernest Drake was the hostess yesterday of a charming morning party, followed by a luncheon, given in honor of Mrs. John Reed of Denver. Red was the color used, the favors being baskets filled with crimson rosebuds. In the dining-room Miss Helen Evans presided. After the luncheon a delightfully informal afternoon was spent by the party guests. Mrs. Wray sang a number of songs and Mrs. Reed recited.

Last evening at 6:30 o'clock took place the marriage of Miss Maud Guyon, and Dallas Brown. F. D. Platt of the L. D. S. church officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Edna Clark as bridesmaid. The best man was George Brown, brother of the groom. The bride wore a dainty gown of white mull over silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was performed in the parlor was beautifully decorated with white roses and smilax. Nasturtiums and sweet peas were seen in the dining-room. Punch was served during the evening by Miss Myrtle Earl. After July 1 Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Brown will be at home to their friends at 615 Second West street.

A delightful luncheon of the week was when ten close friends of Mrs. J. A. Graham surprised her at a dainty luncheon on Tuesday afternoon. The table was bright with many bowls of red roses. Covers were laid for Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. Thorn, Mrs. M. H. Sowles, Mrs. Pearl, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Tibbals, Mrs. Wistley, Mrs. L. Hanchett.

Miss Gertrude Damon of Washington, D. C. is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Fred Evans. Miss Damon was recently awarded highest honors in her graduation from the New England conservatory of music.

Mrs. Agnes Oshorne gives a musical this evening in honor of Madam Fox.

Mrs. Daniel Swan and two children and Mrs. Lashbrook of Washington, D. C. have arrived in Salt Lake and will be guests for the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lashbrook, 125 E. street.

After an absence of several months in San Francisco, Mrs. H. E. Deardorf has returned to Salt Lake and is at home to her friends at 544 East First South street.

Miss Anna Rankin of Greensburg, Ind., but formerly well known here, will arrive here Saturday morning on her way to Portland. Miss Rankin has just graduated from the college department of the University of Indiana. While in this city she will be the guest of Miss Vera Lane.

Mrs. William A. Wetzel leaves Friday for Portland, where she will spend the summer with the family of her brother, Dr. Cumming.

Mrs. Fisher S. Harris and children leave early in July for Brighton, where they will occupy their cottage for the summer.

The marriage of Miss Clara Kessler, youngest daughter of Mrs. Jane E. Kessler, and George H. Crook will take place today at noon in the Salt Lake Temple. The young people go to Portland on their wedding trip, returning to Salt Lake to make their home.

Mrs. A. H. Combs of Denver is visiting friends in Salt Lake.

A pretty home wedding was the one solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hall, when Miss Anna Hall became the bride of Robert King Brown. The parlor was decorated with many potted palms and vases of white roses and carnations. Promptly at 6 o'clock Mrs. L. J. King played the Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal party entered. Miss Helen Jennings presided at the table. First came the two ribbon bearers, Miss Gladys Savage and Miss Margaret Dunn, dressed in dainty costumes of white swiss. The maid of honor was Miss Bess Hall, who wore a gown of white net over taffeta and carried pink La France roses. The bride was radiant in a beautiful gown of white tulle and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. A shower bouquet of bride's roses. A Herpicide Will Save It. HE NEEDS A GUARDIAN. The business man who is too busy to look after his health and personal comfort needs a guardian. To notice dandruff and falling hair is beneath his idea of business. Later when incurable baldness comes he will waste money trying to overcome the result of his own neglect. Some one at home should look after him. At first sight of dandruff—which is a contagious disease—Newbro's Herpicide should be used. It cures dandruff and stops falling hair by destroying the dandruff germ. A delightful hair dressing. STOPS ITCHING INSTANTLY. Drug Stores, $1.00. Send 10c stamps to HERPICIDE CO., Dept. H., Detroit, Mich., for a sample.

Randolph Morris was the best man. During the ceremony Miss Jennings sang "God's Beauty's Eyes" very sweetly, the service being read by Dr. McNeice.

The colors used in the dining-room were pink and green. Many bowls of pink sweet peas and roses were seen. A low mound of pink rosebuds formed the centerpiece, with loose flowers scattered over the cloth. Red was used in the hall, daisies roses and red carnations twined with plumosa being artistically combined. Punch was served during the evening by Misses Pearl and Georgia Savage, Miss Stringley and Miss Helen Luckingham. The wedding was a very quiet one witnessed only by relatives and close friends of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left last night for a trip through southern California, and will be at home to their friends after September 1 at 772 Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Oglesby chaperoned a number of young people to the lake last evening.

Tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Cannon will take place the wedding reception of Miss Emma Ramsey and George Q. Morris.
